I, _____, understand and acknowledge that as part of the required coursework in the Esthetics Program at Collin College, I will be participating in hands-on training of skincare treatments and procedures on fellow students under the guidance of industry-experienced licensed instructors. I am aware that these hands-on training sessions are an integral part of the learning experience and are essential for my education in esthetics.

I understand the following:

1. All treatments and procedures will be performed solely for educational purposes and conducted in a controlled and supervised environment.
2. Licensed instructors will provide guidance and oversight during all training sessions to ensure the safety and proper execution of skincare treatments and procedures.
3. Despite the precautions and supervision provided by the college and its instructors, there are inherent risks associated with skincare treatments and procedures, which may include, but are not limited to, skin irritation, allergic reactions, and other temporary or minor discomforts.
4. While every effort will be made to ensure the safety of all participants, accidents and unforeseen events can occur.

I hereby release Collin College, its faculty, staff, instructors, and agents from any liability for any injuries or bodily harm I may sustain while participating in hands-on training as part of the Esthetics Program. I understand that the college is not responsible for any injuries, illnesses, or adverse reactions that may result from the skincare treatments and procedures performed during training.

I have read and understood this Liability Release Form and voluntarily accept the risks of participating in hands-on training as part of the Esthetics Program. I understand the importance of following all safety guidelines and instructions provided by the college and its instructors.
