Apply today for the National Science Foundation (NSF) Computer Science as a Career (CSAC) Scholarship STEM Program

COLLIN COLLEGE

Advance society through computing with the support of the CSAC S-STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) scholarship program

Scholars receive up to $10,000 per year up to four years

(Restrictions may apply)

Highlights

- Scholarships
- Career Counseling
- Faculty and Peer Mentoring
- Professional Networking
- Seminars and Workshops
- IMCS Group (IT, Healthcare, and Professional Staffing Company) Coding Challenge
- ACM (Association for Computing Machinery) & IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers) Student Chapter Activities
- CSAC Summer Camp
- Travel to Conferences
- Summer Research Opportunities for AI and Data Science
- Internships

Eligibility

- Full-time Students
- Computer Science Major
- Freshman and Sophomores
- Transfer Students
- 2.8 GPA
- Pell Grant Eligible
- Must be a US Citizen

Apply Today: bit.ly/40YVh4S

Program Contacts:

Tebring Daly
Computer Science Professor
Email: tdaly@collin.edu

Misti Clark
Computer Science Professor
Email: misticlark@collin.edu

NSF